

BOB PENCE

Dynamic Speaker

- 30 years with the FBI
- Special Agent in Charge (SAC) for the Rocky Mountain states
- Law enforcement consultant in matters involving crime and terrorism
- Media consultant to national TV networks and local media
- Author of "My Non-Political FBI: From Hoover to a Violent America"

During his 30 years with the FBI, Bob Pence served in a number of supervisory and executive positions, retiring as the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of FBI offices in the Rocky Mountain states with Division Headquarters in Denver. Since then he has traveled throughout the U.S. and abroad as a speaker and law enforcement consultant in matters involving crime and terrorism. Bob has also served as a media consultant to national TV networks and local media organizations, appearing frequently in matters dealing with public safety issues.

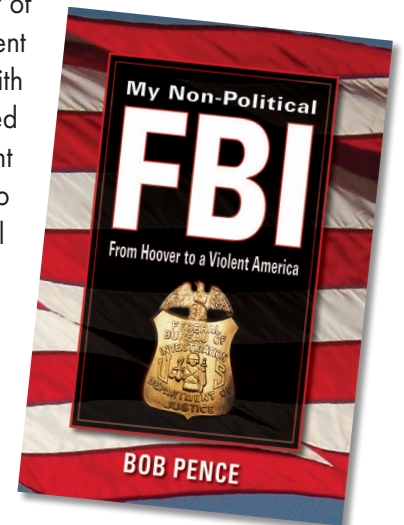

BIO

Bob is a member of the FBI National Executive Institute (NEI), International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), and National Sheriffs' Association (NSA), as well as law enforcement associations in several states. He also serves, or has served, on a variety of charity, foundation, and law enforcement boards, committees, and councils.

Bob's new book, My Non-Political FBI: From Hoover to a Violent America, documents some of his FBI and post-FBI stories and adventures but also relates his insights into the major changes to the FBI through the years from the early days of its first director J. Edgar Hoover. Many will find especially relevant and important his theory of the how and why violent crime is reaching epic levels and police are using excessive, and even deadly, force earlier and more frequently.

During his current series of speaking engagements, Bob will be discussing highlights from the book, along with an opportunity to obtain a copy and have it signed.

Bob is a member of the International Speakers Network and past member of the National Speakers Association.
